NO GUNS CARRIED BY THE LUSITANIA; U. S. REJECTS GERMAN "AFFIDAVITS"

PRZEMYSL IS RECAPTURED BY GERMANS AND AUSTRIANS IN A DESPERATE ASSAULT

Guns Seized at the Outer Forts Are Used by the Invaders.

MANY PRISONERS TAKEN.

"Most Remarkable Feat of the War," Say London Observers.

VIENNA (via Berlin wireless), June 3.—Przemysl fell before the armies of General Mackensen at 3.30 A. M. today, after a three weeks' siege. Many prisoners, cannon and machine guns and large supplies of food and war munitions were captured by the Austro-German armies. The main body of the Russian army is reported to be retreating in disorder eastward along the railway leading to Lemberg. A terrific bombardment by Austrian and German howitzers and forty-two centimetre guns broke the northern forts to pieces. Large bodies of Austro-German troops rushed into the gaps, driving the enemy back through the town. German cavalry is harassing the Slavs who are retiring upon entrenchments in the vicinity of Moskala. The capture of the great Galician fortress gives Mackensen undisputed control of the Jaroslau-Przemysl railway for forty miles to a point south of Przemysl. The railway runs parallel to the new battle front. The Russians are now attempting to form behind Przemysl and is of immense strategic value. It enables the Austro-Germans to heavily concentrate large bodies for sudden assaults at the Russians in the direction of Lemberg. The War Office early this afternoon had no estimate of the number of Russian prisoners taken, nor of the losses on either side. It was admitted that Mackensen's forces lost heavily in attacking the outer forts. But the enemy's losses are reported to be appalling. A comparatively small force of Russians made the final stand against the Austro-Germans. All day yesterday trainloads of Russian troops were hurried eastward from Przemysl to prepare several weeks ago. Only troops enough to man the guns and to resist

BELMONT BETTING TO BE PASSED ON BY GRAND JURY

Two Held in Mineola Court on Charge of Bookmaking at Race Track.

(Special to The Evening World.)
MINEOLA, L. I., June 3.—Charles Jarndorf of No. 1645 Seventh Avenue, Manhattan, and Lewis E. Pyatt of No. 1929 Tenth Avenue, Manhattan, were held this morning to await the action of the Grand Jury by Justice of the Peace Walter R. Jones. The men were arrested at Belmont Park on May 28, accused of bookmaking. At a postponed hearing this morning Constable John Thompson of Oyster Bay testified that on May 26 and 27 he had placed bets with Jarndorf and that Pyatt was doing business in a similar way. Both Thompson and Charles Kaesboom, an investigator in the District Attorney's office, said that on May 27 they saw groups of a dozen or more men standing about the alleged bookmakers, who were writing on slips of paper which were given about and after examination returned. Thompson said that Jarndorf asked him what he wished and he replied: "Want to lay a bet?" "On what?" said Jarndorf. "Goodward," he replied. A price was given at 10 to 2. Kaesboom testified to seeing slips of paper passed to various persons, who, after examination, made motions toward their clothing and returned the slips to Jarndorf and Pyatt. Counsel for the alleged bookmakers said the actions of their clients were not those of professional bookmakers, as no records or recording of odds were given. The Justice said he did not agree with this and that it was a subterfuge to defeat the law.

TAFT PRAISES WILSON FOR STAND ON GERMANY

"If We Had a Jingo in the White House We Would Now Be at War," Says Ex-President.

PHILADELPHIA, June 3.—"If we had had a Jingo in the White House," said former President Taft in an address at the commencement of Bryn Mawr College today, "this country would now be at war with Germany." "Instead," Mr. Taft said, "our Chief Executive is a man who appreciates his responsibility and realizes that, considering the temper of the people, a turn of his hand would plunge us into an international conflict." Mr. Taft's address outlining his ideas as to a permanent basis for international peace was largely the same as the one he delivered in Cleveland May 12 when he urged the establishment of a world's peace league with a court to settle international differences by arbitration. A conference will be held in Independence Hall, Philadelphia, on June 17, to consider the establishment of such a tribunal. Mr. Taft will preside at the meeting.

"CABARET" SHOWS MUST GO UNLESS LICENSED AT $500

Managers of Rector's and Reisenweber's Convicted of Violating Theatrical Ordinance.

EACH IS FINED $50.

May Appeal From Magistrate Krotel's Decision—Some Restaurant Keepers Are Satisfied.

Magistrate Krotel held in West Side Court today that all performances in costume by singers and dancers in restaurants are, in effect, theatrical performances and are violations of the law unless restaurants and cafes presenting such attractions are protected by theatrical licenses, which cost $500 a year. He based his opinion on an ordinance passed on March 30 by the Board of Aldermen which forbids any sort of a performance in restaurants, which pay only the fee of $50 a year covering a permit for dancing. The decision was rendered in the cases of Paul Salvin, proprietor of Rector's, and John Wagner, manager of Reisenweber's. The case of Homer Mallow, manager of the cafe of the Hotel Wallack was postponed because the Inspector who caused Mr. Mallow's arrest had forgotten his notes. This case will be heard on Friday. Salvin's case was the first heard by Magistrate Krotel today. Inspectors Wahlen and Glynn testified that an electric sign outside Rector's advertised on May 27 an "All Star Cast in Up and Down Broadway." They went inside, the inspectors said, and saw a performance of singing and dancing by performers in costume on a stage with footlights and fixed scenery. Taking part in the show they said were girls who changed their costumes at intervals. Mr. Salvin said the stage had been formerly used by the orchestra. The show, he said, was discontinued as soon as he learned that there was a question as to his right to present such a performance. Magistrate Krotel found him guilty of a violation of the law and imposed a fine of $50. Mr. Salvin pleaded that he had taken off the show, but the Magistrate held that the testimony of the inspectors showed a clear violation of the terms of the ordinance of March 30. A similar decision was rendered in the case of Reisenweber's. Inspectors testified about a performance by girls in costume, but there was no stage in this instance. The performance was given on a dancing floor surrounded by tables. Magistrate Krotel held that this was just as much of a violation as though the performance were given on a stage with footlights and scenery. At the request of counsel for Reisenweber's he postponed final action in this case until June 11 to give opportunity for the filing of a brief. Reisenweber's will appeal. Mr. Salvin said he had not decided what to do. The decision of Magistrate Krotel practically wipes out the restaurant "cabaret" performances, for few restaurant managers will feel like taking out a $500 a year theatrical license for the privilege of giving a free show to patrons. A great many restaurant proprietors are highly pleased at the outcome because the rivalry between restaurants in the way of elaborate productions was becoming disastrous.

GERMAN ARMY MAN FINED.

Lieut. Salomon Pleads Guilty to Customs Fraud.

Lieut. Harry R. Salomon of the German army, a member of the importing and exporting firm of Salomon Bros. & Co., of No. 225 Broadway, pleaded guilty this afternoon before Judge Hunt in the Criminal Branch of the Federal District Court to an indictment charging him and four others with conspiracy to defraud the United States by making and filing a false manifest at the Custom House covering a shipment of 25 barrels of resin, which also contained $40,000 worth of contraband. The case of Salomon Bros. & Co. is one of the many cases in the German army and navy, which were forwarded from this city to Italy via the Canadian Carri-

SUIT TO DISSOLVE U. S. STEEL LOST BY GOVERNMENT

Action Was Brought Under Anti-Trust Law—Appeal Is Likely.

TRENTON, N. J., June 3.—The Government's motion asking for an injunction and dissolution of the United States Steel Corporation was denied in an opinion in the United States Court this afternoon. The decision held that the foreign trade of the corporation is not a violation of the Sherman Law. It holds certain price fixing agreements, which followed the Gary dinners, but which stopped before the bill was filed, to have been unlawful. The decision allows the Government to move to retain jurisdiction of the bill if such price fixing practices are renewed, but suggests that such matters may now be controlled by the new Federal Trade Commission. WASHINGTON, June 3.—News that the Government had lost its dissolution suit against the United States Steel Corporation, for the moment, almost matched the international situation in interest. The suit is regarded as probably the most important anti-trust suit ever brought by the Department of Justice. Undoubtedly it will be appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States because the Government was unwilling to leave such questions as were raised unsettled except by the highest court in the land. Without knowing details of the decision of the court at Trenton officials today preferred not to comment. On Oct. 26, 1911, the Department of Justice filed a petition in the United States Circuit Court in Trenton against the United States Steel Corporation and subsidiary companies, charging them with being an unlawful combination in restraint of trade and a monopoly or attempt to monopoly. The steel corporation, on March 31, 1912, filed an answer denying the allegations and adding that the organization of its subsidiaries was normal and a necessary development of the times. The answer also set forth that the corporation had cheapened the production of steel for the consumer, had extended the home market for steel products and had increased its foreign trade in these products. Henry P. Brown of Philadelphia was appointed special examiner to conduct the hearings which began in the fall of 1912. Hearings were closed in the spring of 1914 and on Oct. 20 final arguments were begun before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in Philadelphia.

NEWARK CLUB WON'T BE SHIFTED, SAYS BARROWS.

President Barrows of the International Baseball League today denied a report that the Newark N. J. Club would be shifted to Harrisburg or York, Pa., because of poor support by local fans.

"There is absolutely no truth in the report," declared President Barrows. "We have a valuable property in the Newark N. J. Club. Baseball business is not very good anywhere this season."
